

Gwendolyn Taylor

Gwendolyn is very excited to be performing in Need A Little Christmas for a second time. She has been taking private voice lessons for the past six years and is currently in the Troubadours ensemble at Post Falls High School. When she is not singing, Gwendolyn loves to play volleyball, swim, read, and spend time with her friends and family. She is always looking to add to her vintage teacup collection. She would like to thank Miss Katelyn for being an amazing teacher, and her family for all their love and support!

Phil Tesone

Phil Tesone returns to Need a Little Christmas, bringing his seasoned percussion talent back to the stage. With over 20 musical theatre productions under his belt, he's been keeping the beat and creating musical magic for more than two decades. Phil would like to thank his family, friends, and fellow cast members for their support in making music and memories.

Cayden Williams

Cayden is 8 years old. He loves playing Little League baseball, knee boarding, and lots of other outdoor sports. He also loves spending time with his family during Christmas, which is what makes doing this production so fun for him. He is also excited to perform alongside his good friends Henry and William Schreindl, and his dad.

Drake Williams

Drake is Cayden's twin. He loves dogs, building Legos, and playing with his brother. Most of all, he loves making people happy, and his favorite way to do this is through singing. That is why he did this production. He wants you to know that the person that inspired him the most to join this production is Elianne Schriendl.

Dusty Williams

This is Dusty's first theater performance. Dusty grew up singing and playing fiddle in a family band. From 3rd grade through High School, he competed in old time fiddle competitions up and down the West Coast. Dusty is excited to have the opportunity to perform on stage alongside his twin sons. In his free time, he enjoys spending time outdoors experiencing all that North Idaho has to offer.

Rachel Williams

This is Rachel's first performance in many years and she is thrilled to be a part of this production. She is a Pacific Northwest native and loves all things creative, her dogs, and being in the outdoors. Rachel would like to thank her family and friends for their encouragement and support in her return to the theater. It is a dream come true!
